

Interrupted Lives:

Portraits of Student Repression in Iran

An exhibit bringing visibility to the plight of thousands of Iranian students who have been victims of politically motivated arrests or executions in Iran over the last 30 years.

Visit www.iranrights.org to learn more about the exhibit, related events, and the struggle for human rights in Iran.

Interrupted Lives

Interrupted Lives: Portraits of Student Repression in Iran

“Interrupted Lives” at NEIU is sponsored by: The Angelina Pedroso Center for Diversity and Intercultural Affairs, Amnesty International NEIU Student Club, Dr. Mohammad Mossadegh Leadership Fund at NEIU, Amnesty International Midwest Region, & Abdurrahman Boroumand Foundation

Special Event: featuring the photo exhibit

“Interrupted Lives”

Tuesday, April 10 —
Friday, April 13, 2012

Location:

Northeastern Illinois
University

3701 W. Bryn Mawr Ave.
Salme Harju Steinberg Fine
Arts Building

in front of the Auditorium

(The exhibit will run during university hours)